AILOG WORLD SUMMIT

IL RUOLO DELLA LOGISTICA NELLA NUOVA ECONOMIA MONDIALE

Brasile, Russia, India e Cina a confronto

Il baricentro dell'economia mondiale si sta spostando verso i paesi BRIC. Brasile, Russia, India, Cina hanno superato la crisi economica e si inseriscono tra i protagonisti dell'economia mondiale, con un mercato interno formato da circa tre miliardi di nuovi consumatori ed una produzione competitiva che avvantaggia le esportazioni nel mercato esterno.

Il 6 ottobre 2010, a Milano, presso l'Hotel Michelangelo, autorevoli economisti e logistici arriveranno da questi paesi per mettere a confronto le loro opinioni sull'economia mondiale e per presentare le possibilità di collaborazione commerciale e industriale con l'Italia.
